

AGREEMENT TO ASSUME RISK AND RELEASE FROM LIABILITY CAMP 56

July 10 – August 6, 2023 (includes camp and show dates)

This is a legal document. You must read and understand it before signing it.

Camp 56 is a two-week day camp providing the opportunity to learn about performing arts followed by scheduled rehearsals and public performances of the Festival 56 production of “Something Rotten.” The youth are going to spend most of their time sitting and listening to speakers, drawing, rehearsing, singing, dancing, practicing stage presence, playing theater games, participating in theater related exercises, applying make-up, and performing in the play “Something Rotten.” This will involve light to medium physical activity.

I acknowledge there are certain risks, hazards and dangers, including risk of physical injury, disability, or death and risk of loss of use or damage to my personal property, as a result of allowing my child to participate in this activity. Risks include but are not limited to transportation accidents, weather-related hazards and natural disasters, infectious diseases, the possibility of slips and falls that could result in scratches, bruises, sprains, lacerations, fractures, concussions, or even more severely debilitating or life-threatening hazards. I understand that loss or injury may result from unknown and unexpected risks and from the use of materials or facilities recommended by the Organizers; environmental conditions; from the acts or omissions of others; or from the unavailability of immediate and/or adequate emergency medical care. I understand that the Organizers do not guarantee the personal health or safety of the participants, nor does it protect against risk of loss of personal property.

If my child is injured or becomes ill and/or causes harm to another person or another person’s property while participating in Camp 56 and related activities, I will accept responsibility for all losses and any medical bills. I will not seek reimbursement from the Learning Stage, its employees, agents or volunteers.

I understand that the Organizers do not assume responsibility for events that are not part of the activity described above, or that are beyond the control of the Organizers, its employees, agents or volunteers or for situations that may arise as a result of the failure of the participant to disclose pertinent information.

I understand that the Organizers have the right to ask my child to leave Camp 56 and restrict future participation if Camp 56 staff determine that my child’s behavior or actions disrupt Camp activities or pose a threat to others participating in the Camp.

In consideration for allowing my child to participate in Camp 56, I release the Learning Stage, its officers, employees, agents and volunteers from all liability, and waive any and all claims that my child and I may have, arising out of or in any way connected with Camp 56 and my child’s participation in the Camp and related activities. This release and waiver is binding on my heirs, assigns and representatives.
